

Magazine Choice Board

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Using the magazine, complete _____ activities on the choice board.

Make sure you read at least _____ articles from the magazine.

Title of Magazine:

R	E	A	D
Choose an article to read. After reading the article, summarize it.	Read the featured article in the magazine. Write the main idea and supporting details of the article.	Choose an illustration from the magazine. Describe the illustration and tell one fact you learned from the illustration and the caption.	Which article in the magazine was your favorite? Why?
Choose an article to read. Before reading the article, read the title and write a prediction about what you think you will learn in the article.	After reading an article in the magazine, write three questions you still have about the topic.	After reading an article in the magazine, explain how the illustrations connect with the text.	Write a letter persuading a friend to read this magazine. Include facts and your own opinion of at least 2 articles in your letter.
Which article in the magazine was your least favorite? Why?	Choose two articles in the text. Compare and contrast the articles. Include at least two ways the articles are similar and two ways they are different.	After reading an article in the magazine, answer these questions: What is the author's purpose in writing this article? Use evidence to prove your answer.	After reading an article in the magazine, create a five question quiz for the article. Also, create an answer key for the quiz.

This resource was created by Jennifer Findley. It may be printed and photocopied for single classroom use. It may not be put on the Internet, sold, or distributed in any form. Check out my store for more resources that are common core aligned.

Follow my blog for updates and freebies.

www.JenniferFindley.com

Thanks!
Jennifer Findley

