

Halloween Read Alouds Free Printables

for Upper Elementary

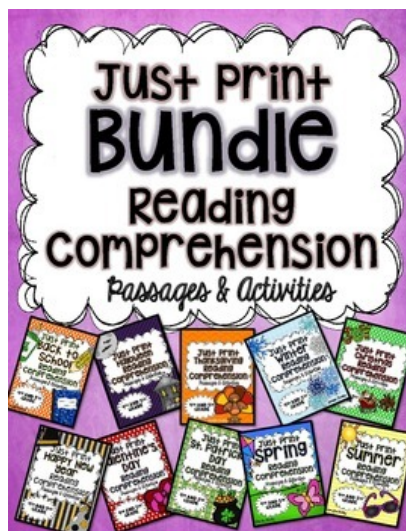

Don't forget to grab the free printables for The Widow's Broom by clicking HERE.

If you are interested in more choice board activities, click HERE.

For more Halloween Resources, click HERE or on the image shown:

For more seasonal reading resources, I recommend my Holiday Reading Just Print Bundle with three passages per set: one fiction, one informational, and one poem. Click HERE or on the image to check it out!

HALLOWILLOWEEN CHOICE BOARD ACTIVITIES

Read a poem from the collection.
Summarize the poem.

Read a poem from the collection.
Draw a visual image that supports the poem.

Read a poem from the collection.
Prove that it is a poem using poetry vocabulary and terms.

Read a poem from the collection.
Name and give an example of at least two poetic devices that the poet uses in this poem.

Write your own poem about a silly Halloween object or character.

Read a poem from the collection with at least three words you do not know. Use context clues to define the words.

HALLOWILLOWEEN CHOICE BOARD ACTIVITIES

Read a poem from the collection.
Summarize the poem.

Read a poem from the collection.
Draw a visual image that supports the poem.

Read a poem from the collection.
Prove that it is a poem using poetry vocabulary and terms.

Read a poem from the collection.
Name and give an example of at least two poetic devices that the poet uses in this poem.

Write your own poem about a silly Halloween object or character.

Read a poem from the collection with at least three words you do not know. Use context clues to define the words.

HALLOWEEN CHOICE BOARD ACTIVITIES

Read a poem from the collection. Summarize the poem.	Read a poem from the collection. Draw a visual image that supports the poem.	Read a poem from the collection. Prove that it is a poem using poetry vocabulary and terms.
Read a poem from the collection. Name and give an example of at least two poetic devices that the poet uses in this poem.	Write your own poem about a silly Halloween object or character.	Read a poem from the collection with at least three words you do not know. Use context clues to define the words.

---

HALLOWEEN CHOICE BOARD ACTIVITIES

Read a poem from the collection. Summarize the poem.	Read a poem from the collection. Draw a visual image that supports the poem.	Read a poem from the collection. Prove that it is a poem using poetry vocabulary and terms.
Read a poem from the collection. Name and give an example of at least two poetic devices that the poet uses in this poem.	Write your own poem about a silly Halloween object or character.	Read a poem from the collection with at least three words you do not know. Use context clues to define the words.

The Spider and the Fly

Name: _____ Date: _____

After reading The Spider and the Fly, complete the graphic organizer.

What is a possible theme of the story?

---

---

---

---

---

---

What evidence from the story supports the theme you chose?

---

---

---

---

The Spider and the Fly: Using Clues

Name: _____

Date: _____

Using context clues from the text, determine the meaning of the words in the table.

Word	Context Clues	Definition
parlor
vain
weary soaring cunning affection
witty
behold subtle hue

The Spider and the Fly: Using Clues

Answer Key

Word	Context Clues	Definition
parlor	Clues will vary.	room in a home
vain	Clues will vary.	useless
weary	Clues will vary.	tired
soaring	Clues will vary.	flying
cunning	Clues will vary.	sly, sneaky
affection	Clues will vary.	love, likeness
witty	Clues will vary.	clever, smart and funny
behold	Clues will vary.	see, observe
hither	Clues will vary.	here
hue	Clues will vary.	color

This resource was created by Jennifer Findley. It may be printed and photocopied for single classroom use. It may not be put on the Internet, sold, or distributed in any form. Check out my store for more resources that are common core aligned.

Follow my blog for updates and freebies.

Thanks!
Jennifer Findley

