

6 Traits Writing

Ideas Think of an interesting idea and details	Organization Give your ideas a good beginning, middle, and end, going from one to the other easily.	Word Choice Use interesting words that make pictures in the readers' minds.	Sentence Fluency Shape sentences differently, some short and some long.	Voice Write so your words sound like you, your ideas, feelings and let readers really understand you.	Conventions Work on capitalization and punctuation. Use your best spelling.
<input type="checkbox"/> Use a graphic organizer to plan ideas	<input type="checkbox"/> Strong Hook	<input type="checkbox"/> Clear adjectives	<input type="checkbox"/> Begin your sentences differently	<input type="checkbox"/> Personification	<input type="checkbox"/> 5 Minute Edit/Revise
<input type="checkbox"/> Narrow the idea	<input type="checkbox"/> Use a graphic organizer to plan ideas	<input type="checkbox"/> Spicy verbs	<input type="checkbox"/> Use different transition words	<input type="checkbox"/> Hyperbole	<input type="checkbox"/> Capitalization
<input type="checkbox"/> Show, Don't Tell	<input type="checkbox"/> Sequence details	<input type="checkbox"/> Strong nouns	<input type="checkbox"/> Have short, medium, and long sentences	<input type="checkbox"/> Character Reactions	<input type="checkbox"/> Punctuation
<input type="checkbox"/> Add juicy details	<input type="checkbox"/> Use transition words	<input type="checkbox"/> Onomatopoeia	<input type="checkbox"/> Use introductory phrases	<input type="checkbox"/> Dialogue About three	<input type="checkbox"/> Apostrophes (Possessives and Contractions)
<input type="checkbox"/> Sensory details	<input type="checkbox"/> Use paragraphs	<input type="checkbox"/> Simile			<input type="checkbox"/> Punctuating Dialogue
	<input type="checkbox"/> Take Away Ending	<input type="checkbox"/> Metaphor			<input type="checkbox"/> "To" "Two" "Too"
					<input type="checkbox"/> "Their" "They're" "There"